Caddie Swift been sick a few days last week at South Paris with her friend Lizzie Bird.

Extra Marshall from Hebron is visiting friends and relatives in this place.

O. L. Stone has a note written by his grandmother in 1816. The penmanship is good and can be easily read.

G. P. Marshall has twenty-five spring lamb.

O. L. Stone has taken a job to cut five cords of wood for Albert Winslow of Norway.

SOUTH WATERFORD.

The Waterford Creamery Co. are doing a good business at present as their factory, making more than two thousand lbs. of butter per week and during the month of March more per inch for cream than at any previous time, it being the price. This company is receiving liberal patronage by the farmers in this section and the producers of cream realize that this is the very best method of disposing of the dairy product. The monthly disbursements by this company are more than those of all other manufacturing industries in town.

A. L. Stone who is in the employ of the Mass. Real Estate Investment Co. was in town this week. He is at present canvassing Oxford County and will be in Norway and Paris the latter part of the week. He represents a strong Co. and will be pleased to unfold their methods of business to all careful investors.

P. M. Gilhes has moved from Bridgton to this place to care for Mrs. Gilhes mother, Mrs. Betsey Monroe, in the absence of Ward Monroe and wife who go to Portland.

Fred Haynes, who is employed on the R. R. in New York, is stopping with his brother, W. H. Haynes, for some time.
His health was somewhat impaired when he came but is now improved.

J. B. Hall has been in Portland the past week to visit his son, George A., who is the inventor of the Hall Shower, which is attracting so much attention among manufacturers and those using harvesting machinery.

The improvement in the condition of Mrs. Monroe who has been ill for some weeks is very gradual, if indeed there is any. Her age, which is 73, is thought by her friends to be against complete recovery.

NORTH WATERFORD.

Robbie Knight from Bridgton Academy was home over Sunday.

The New England Order of Deacons seems to be prospering lately here.

Not any service at the church Sunday owing to the stormy weather and bad travelling.

Mrs. J. R. Rice returned home Saturday from a visit she had been making her daughter at Norway.

Fred Stone and son have passed the Sabbath here with friends.

Cyrus Green's daughters, a few evenings since, entertained a party of their friends. The evening passed pleasantly with playing games, etc. They were treated to excellent ice cream.

Saturday evening, March 28th, at Moberg's Hall, some of the ladies of North Waterford assisted by several gentlemen are to give an entertainment consisting of a farce, "No Cure, No Pay," and a play, "The Merchant of Venice."
After the play, there will be a social dance. Good music furnished. Ice cream and cake will be served to all who wish it.

WILSON'S MILLS.

Town meeting Wednesday, the following officers were elected—Assessors, F.
P. Pennek, R. S. Beau, Hart; transactor, J. C. Bean; clerk, F. T. Pennek; collector, R. S. Beau; supervisor, F. T.
Pennek; road agent, Augustus W. Beau.
Those Weymouth's teams came out of the woods Friday and started for home.

Donald Cameron had his favorite horse
"Harry" badly hurt in the woods.

The crew of Cameron & Sturtevant came out of the woods Saturday.

F. L. Twichell came to Norway.

A big thaw is in progress at present.

Rope Ornaments.

I have some pair of different sizes very light and clear for color that will make very nice looking ornaments on rope dis-tenders. Have you seen them? They are very pretty.

Wm. C. Leavitt, Next Elm House.

BUCKFIELD.

The water is very high in the river.
The intervals are all flowed at this writing.

The sick are improving. No new cases that I know of but it is very sickly all around us.

There have been four good horses and cows sold here lately and there are lots more good ones left.

J. Hutchinson has a nice Jersey cow for sale, five years old this spring, comes in in milk and makes from three to four pounds of butter per week. Now perfect for selling, Mr. H. thinks of going to sell this spring.

Easter Sunday will be observed at the
M. E. church.

Not very good sap weather just now.

The old building, known as the stand old shoe handle factory and the stand where E. L. Irish now lives on Morrill street, also the farm where J. M. Irish formerly lived will be sold at auction next Saturday at the office of O. H. Herring.

SHREKED MOUNTAIN.—As the sled-ing leaves us, the tempests are closing their winter jobs.

Disaster like a gripe is on the warpath, and in some cases it is very severe.

W. E. Bumpus has bought a bend of George Smith.

Hose Bonney and wife were in this vicinity last Friday.

Ellen Dudley is visiting her sister Mrs.
James Lewis at Paris.

Dustin Turner is breaking a three year old colt for Benjamin Maxim.

Man and woman got two loads of hay from the Hodgdon barn last Saturday, hauling them on the crust half a mile.

Rumor has it that Clark W. Foster has got 300 apple trees to set out the coming spring.

Melvina Bumpus has bought Dustin
L. Turner's blueberry pasture.

NORFOLK.

Fred Sargent, who has been at work at Moultonboro, N. H., cut his knee and has come home for repairs.

Horace Taggert has been on the sick-list, is improving.

Dora Pugliese left word for Mr. Pierce of Kegan's Hall.

Mrs. Betsey Robbins is in very poor health, also Mrs. Martha Sargent.

Mrs. Orin Norton is still quite feeble.
Ellsworth Gilpatrick has moved to Cornish.

Miss George Perkins of Eaton, N.
